The seven principles that are keys of the operating system that are foundational within each DISPENSATION. Only when failure occurs does the last three principles bring about a new dispensation starting the cycle all over again.

If there is no failure in a dispensation, the last three principle would never exist bring into effect a new dispensation.